On Sunday evening Rev. W. M. Forrest preached an interesting sermon at the Christian Church along the line of christianity in business or business in christianity. He showed that in business affairs there should be the fundamental principles of honesty and truthfulness; a fair representation of values; full weights and measures, and a just compensation for every outlay. It was a practical sermon, and will, no doubt, accomplish good.

Next Sunday being Easter there will be special music at the First Presbyterian Church, and the pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Joplin, will have for his subject in the morning "The Resurrection of Christ" and in the evening "If a Man Die Shall he Live Again?" Services at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. A most cordial invitation is extended to the public generally. Prayer Meeting on Wednesday night at 7:30, topic "The Resurrection of Christ as an argument and an inspiration."

Sunday, April 1st, was a day of unusual interest at the first Presbyterian Church, being the first communion service since the arrival of the new pastor, Rev. Geo. A. Joplin. A large congregation was present, and the service was a very solemn one, and in the quiet meditation of the hour, everyone received new strength for the service of the Lord. The church also had the privilege of welcoming seven new members. At the evening service another large congregation was present, when Miss Aldrich sang a beautiful solo entitled "Come," which was followed by a strong sermon on "The Complete Invita-
